PERSONAL STATEMENT

*Applicants are evaluated based on strength of their response to the questions below. Careful consideration should be given to your response in order to receive the award. While a review of high school transcripts is a part of the evaluation, awards are not based solely on academics. A strong preference is given to students who have shown the ability to work hard and overcome obstacles even if they have a lower GPA. Please attach your essay answering the following:

1. What personal goals do you have for the near future?
2. How would you use $1,500 to “jump start” your life after high school?
3. What challenges (any kind) have you had to deal with in life?
